How about a Web-Application that lets you choose your study partners online? Study partners with whom you can study in library, who are available as per your schedule, who are Einstein of their own field and can help you understand difficult concepts (may be better than your professor).

We are building this online solution to ferret out these Einsteins out of the 1000's of on-campus students around you and help you form group YOUR study group the way you like.

To make this critical task better (or even Best) we would like to know some of your preferences. Our questions revolve around features that can make your user experience as amazing as possible. so, please answer these questions in an as elaborate manner as you feel appropriate.

First tell us something about yourself:

Have you ever previously studied in a Group?
- Yes, thats the way I always study
- No, Stupid people study in Study Groups
- Yeah I sometimes do that (depends upon assignment and professor).

Do you prefer study groups over independent study?
- Yes, its cool
- No, its waste of time

What should be an ideal MAXIMUM size of a study group for you?

What should be an ideal MINIMUM size of a study group for you?

Would you like to form study groups using an online system?
- Yes, Why not! I live in 21st century
- No, I'd rather invite applications via notice board.
- May be

How comfortable are you in using internet and computers in general?
1,2,3,4,5,6,7

1. Suppose you want to join an existing Group for your subject XYZ123, how would you like to:

   a. Search an existing Group?
   - It should be like a Google on my home page.
   - Should get group recommendations on my home page.
   - I want both the options

   b. Tell about your preferred study hours?

- I don't want to do that, its on my Google Calendar, I will only add anything missing in my calnder
- I will enter every event One-by-One

c. Apply for an existing group?
- It should be like Facebook, I should get 'Join Group' option
- I should get Group Admin/Member's email ID. I would like to send personalized joining request.
- Any of the ways will work for me.

d. What would you like to know about the Group:
- All
- Course ID
- Group Description
- Name of the Professor(s) to which course belong
- Group Rules
- Group Size /Allowed Size
- Preferred Location of the study
- Admin Contact Information
- Holiday preferences (I don't like working on Weekends, It's a movie time)
- On going topics within the group
- Other Information (text box)

e. Would you prefer a moderator or leader in the group or equal status for each member?
- Moderator (That should be the Einstein of our Group)
- No moderator (I am not a school kid).

2. Suppose you are making your own Study Group,

a. Would your group have Rules, regulations, policies?
- Yes (I feel happy being a strickler)
- No (It's a free world, No Rules)
- May be some

b. What information would you like to include/share while forming it (apart from group timings and subject(s))? (multiple choice)
- All
- Name of the Professor(s) to which course belong
- Group Description
- My set of Rules (like atleast 4.0 GPA required for Membership plus an interview)
- Number of Group Member(s) allowed
- Preferred Location of the study

- My Contact Information
- Holiday preferences (I don't like working on Weekends, It's a movie time)
- Open Group/Closed Group
- Topics I will study
- Other Information (text box)

    c. Would you like an 'Invite' facility to invite brilliant gems of your class in your group?
- Yes (That's the sole purpose of my group)
- No (I don't like Geeks)

3. Suppose you are a Group Morderator:
   a. How would you like to receive Membership requests from other people who wants to join your group?
   - It should receive it in Application's inbuilt Inbox
   - Application should notify me about a new request
   - I will make my phone number and email ID public, they can send me personalized requests.

   b. If you group reaches maximum membership limit, You would like to:
   - Keep receiving membership requests.
   - Stop receiving membership requests
   - Extend my group size.
   - Replace some of my group members

   c. Would you like to kick out some of the Group members if they are not regular?
   - Yes, they deserve it
   - No, its insane

4. Now that you are part of a Study Group, how would you like to
   a. Communicate with your study partners in an online study group? (Text box)
       e.g. Through personal emails, or though inbuilt application messaging facility, phone etc.

   b. decide where and when you would meet for study? (Text box)
       e.g. voting within the group, or I like to keep study location fixed.

5. Would you prefer updating the status of topics covered by your group publicly so that other students may join you if interested?
   - Yes (I want the world to know that we study hard)
   - No (I don't want my friends to know that I know everything)
   - Maybe (Sometimes, when I wanna show-off)

6. Would you like to join or create an OPEN group in which anyone, from any course can join your group? The only purpose of the group is to study together?
   - Yes
   - No
   - Sounds Stupid

7. What do you think how can we make your online study group formation experience be best? What all features you would like?

8. Would you like to share any group study experience of yours? Something that you liked or disliked about it?

9. Have you ever used any other online study group earlier?